correctness of the version as detailed: Below will be read with avidity the letter of our correspondent at Parkville. It was written by an impartial and an intelligent gentleman, who was an eye witness to the whole occurrence, and may be considered perfectly authentic. It will be seen that Geo. S. Park and Wm. J. Patterson, who have for years been manifesting freesoil and abolition proclivities, through the "Luminary," and otherwise-were ordered to depart from the country in three weeks. The resolutions speak like FLINT TO THE POW-DER-like determined patriots who know no fear, and mean to defend their rights and their institutions. Let the case be fairly understood-let the world understand, that the people, in honest simplicity and determination, have destroyed the press and fixtures of the Luminary newspaper, for the reason that George S. Park and W. J. We pledge ourselves to give every one who may think proper to deal with us satisfaction as to the quality and price of the article.

The impression heretofore so very prevalent that as kentuckian within 50 or 100 miles of this flourishing little city could purchase foods at any rate near the Cincinnati prices, has of late been repeatedly contradicted by persons who thought proper to purchase of those living within their own borders. This is not the case only in our tranch of business, but every other merchant, whatever his business may be, has found it necessary to increase his stock, to supply the demands. We purchase in the same markets as our neighbors, and on the same terms; our expenses and our taxes are by far less than theirs: why is it, then, that we cannot compete with them? The only conclusive answer is, that we can and will! All we ask is a fair trial.

If Porders from the country, will be always attended to forthwith, and shipped as per direction.

Ned Forrest,

Will stand the present season at my place. 14 miles above Cynthiana, on the Covington and Lexington allroad, and will be allowed to serve manerat the lew rice of $8 for a colt.

There is no use talking about Ned Forrest, as prest; price of $8 for a colt.

There is no use talking about Ned Forrest, as prestly much every "horse man" in the country has seen his get, and no trotting horse in the Union con show a better pedigree, ast he following will prove.

Ned Forrest was got by the celebrated northern trotting horse Young Rashaw, and was sired by the Arabian Grand Bashaw, who was imported from Tripoli by Capt. Joseph C. Morgan, who resided there several years, and selected him with great care from the best stock of horse in that country. His dam was sired by the great race horse First Consul, his grand dam by old Messenger; his great dam by imported Rockingnem. Ned Forrest's dam was by the favorite trotting horse Saltpetre, and or a full blood Morgan mare.

Thus it will be seen that while the stock upon the alre's side is of the pure, undegenerated Arabian, that of the dam is the very bes. American, which is presumed to be sufficient recommendation. So bring on your mares and get colts that will pay for raising.

MANSENA SMITH.

THE celebrated jack, BLACK-HAWK, will stand at the same time and place, at $6 to insure a colt.

If PSundays excepted.

N. B. A premium of a $10 Silver Cup, will be given for the best colt of Nei's get, to be shown in Cynthiaus on the 2d Saturday in September 1856.

There cannot be anything in which a base and ungenerous spirit is more displayed than in this vicious propensity.

There is a lust in man no power can tame. Of loudly publishing his neighbor's shame; On eagte's wings immortal scandals fly. Whilst virtuous actions are but born to die.

The slanderer's breast is a troubled ocean, tossed to and fro by every storm, venting the force of its pent-up malignity on the fair and spotless flowers that decorate the fields of life. THIS Mill is a square frame made of wood, or cast iron, in the form of a husk, with bridge-tree, spindle, Balance, tine, driver, and regulating screw, and grinds apon the same principle as a large mill, differing only in the runner stone; this being of great weight, enables it to grind, near the center, a larger quantity of gran, with less power, than any other mill now in use. This mill is portable, and may be attached to steam, water, horse, or hand power.

Also, all sizes of French Burr Mill Stones, manufactured on the same principle.

Joe. H. Burrows, of Cincinnati, is the Inventor, for which he obtained Letters Patent in 1842. For all infingements the purchaser will be held responsible for the right of using.

These mills do not require a milwright to set them up; and all that is necessary to put them in operation is, to attach a band to the pully on the spindle, with a drum sufficiently large to run the 24 inch mill 240 revolutions per minute, attached to gin, steam, or water power. By the steady application of two-horse power the mill will grind six to eight bushels per hout of good meal; and will grind wheat as well as corn. The 30 inch mill, if put to its fullest speed, will grind from 13 to 15 bushe's per hout. These mills are warranted to be, in every respect, as recommended.

Refer to Thos. Patterson, Esq., et Highland county, O.; Cousan ption. It also exerts a decided action upon the recommended.

Refer to Thos. Patterson, Esq., of Highland county, O., lesse Beal, of Clinton county, O., C. S. Bradbury, Esq., of Cincin nati, and a number of others.

DIRECTIONS FOR USING. DIRECTIONS FOR USING.

Place your Mill about 12 feet from the Driving Pully, in a level position, make the belt of leather six to eight inches wide. Give the stone 240 revolutions in a minute, with the sun. Keep the neck and step of the spindle well oited. Place the star on the back of the runner stone, the oited. Place the star on the back of the runner stone, the way they are trimmed to run.

We also manufacture Steam Boiler Engines of all descriptions, for Grist and Saw Mill. Particular attention paid to Saw Mill Engines. We have Steam Englines and Sollers always on hand and in progress, so that we can fill an order on snort notice at any time.

All orders directed to J. 21. EUISEBOWS & CO., WIST FRONT STREET, CINCINNATI, O.

Also, constantly on hand W. STEWART'S Newly Improved Corn and Cob Crusher, known by the name of the "OHIO AND KENTUCKY SIOCK MILLS," which will break and grind from 15 to 30 bushels per hour.
